On December 17, 1996, the Cameron County Commissioners Court by resolution established the Civil Legal Department of the Commissioners Court to represent the County in its general legal business and to conduct its ordinary civil actions, effective December 19, 1996, and at that same meeting authorized and directed the substitution of counsel as above set forth.

The purpose of this substitution is not for delay and should cause no delay because the attorney in charge and attorney of counsel for the County remains the same.

The undersigned has conferred with counsel for Plaintiff and with counsel for the other Defendants, if any, and they have no objection to this Motion To Substitute Counsel.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Cameron County, by vote of the Cameron County Commissioners Court, respectfully prays the Court grant this Motion and make the substitution as above set forth.

For Defendant Cameron County:

Commissioners Court Civil Legal Department
964 East Harrison Street

Brownsville, Texas 78528
(210) 550 1448
(210) 544 0801 Facsimile
